

Free Event

Community Connections:

The Opioid Crisis and the Faith Community

Thursday, February 21, 2019

8:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Anona United Methodist Church

Worship Center

13233 Indian Rocks Rd.

Largo, FL 33774

Featured Speakers include: Gayle Guidash, Pinellas County Health Department; Chief Anthony Holloway, St. Petersburg Police Department; Dianne Clarke, Operation Par; Larry Cooper, Kinship Children's Home Network; Laurallyn Segur, Eckerd Connects

Come join us for a morning of information and resources about the Opioid Crisis in our Community and how you and the Faith Community can become involved. Continental Breakfast will be provided.

Organized by Family Oriented Concept Unified to Serve (FOCUS)

A collaborative planning team of religious professionals and social service providers committed to working throughout Pinellas County on behalf of Children and Families

For more information contact: Joanne Reich 727-453-5624 jreich@jwbpinellas.org or Yaridis L. Garcia, 727-453-5662 ygarcia@jwbpinellas.org